

Renaë Moch, MBA, FACMPE, is currently the Director of Bismarck-Burleigh Public Health. Her background includes work in public health and medical practice management. She is a Fellow in the American College of Medical Practice Executives (FACMPE) which is the highest level of distinction in the medical practice management profession.

She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a minor in Business Communications and an MBA in Healthcare from the University of Mary in Bismarck, ND and currently serves on the board of directors for the North Dakota Medical Group Management Association in addition to her role with ND PHA.